Discovery Fire — Event Key Terms Before Purchase

Checkout summary aligned to the full Discovery Fire Event Terms & Conditions

Important Notice. The Key Terms below are provided as a convenience summary only and do not replace the full Discovery Fire Event Terms & Conditions. Purchaser should review the full terms before purchase. By checking the acknowledgment box and completing purchase, purchaser confirms acceptance of the full applicable terms.

1. TICKET PURCHASE & ADMISSION

1.1 Event admission provides access to a live, outdoor, experience-based event and does not guarantee specific menu items, food availability, service timing, seating conditions, or event elements.

1.2 All ticket sales are final and non-refundable except as expressly stated in the full applicable terms.

2. EVENT CONDITIONS & ENVIRONMENT

2.1 The event takes place in a rural, outdoor, working farm environment with uneven terrain, gravel, holes, dust, insects including bees, hornets, and yellow jackets, wildlife, domestic animals, animal waste, low lighting, and non-standard structures or surfaces.

2.2 The event operates rain or shine and event timing, layout, programming, and offerings may be modified due to weather, operational needs, safety considerations, or other factors.

3. FIRE, HEAT & EQUIPMENT HAZARDS

3.1 The event includes live-fire cooking and active food production environments involving open flames, fire pits, grills, smokers, hot surfaces, sparks, embers, ash, smoke, and rapidly changing temperature conditions.

3.2 The event also involves the use of small and large-scale cooking equipment, including mechanical and industrial equipment, tools, and active preparation areas that present a significant risk of burns, injury, or property damage.

3.3 Guests must maintain a safe distance from all fire, cooking, and equipment areas, follow all staff direction, and exercise heightened awareness and caution at all times.

3.4 Guests are responsible for supervising minors and ensuring they remain clear of all hazardous areas, equipment, and active cooking zones.

4. FOOD, ALLERGENS & CONSUMPTION

4.1 Discovery Fire is not an allergen-free environment. Common allergens are present and cross-contact is likely.

4.2 Guests with severe allergies, celiac disease, or medical sensitivities are advised not to consume event food or beverages.

4.3 Food and beverage offerings are subject to availability and may vary, be limited, or run out during the event due to demand or operational conditions.

4.4 Food and beverages are provided for on-site consumption only and may not be removed unless expressly authorized by Discovery Fire.

5. ALCOHOL & BEVERAGE POLICY

5.1 Only beer and wine are permitted.

5.2 No outside alcohol or distilled spirits are allowed on site.

6. GUEST CONDUCT & SAFETY

6.1 All guests are subject to event-wide rules relating to admission, conduct, alcohol service, food handling, restricted areas, and safety requirements.

6.2 Guests must follow all posted guidance and staff direction and must not enter restricted or hazardous areas.

6.3 Violation of event rules, unsafe behavior, or failure to follow staff direction or safety instructions may result in removal from the event without refund.

7. ASSUMPTION OF RISK & LIABILITY

7.1 By attending, guests knowingly and voluntarily assume all risks associated with a live-fire outdoor event environment, including environmental conditions, food consumption, and proximity to active cooking operations and equipment.

7.2 Discovery Fire's total liability is limited to the price of the ticket as further detailed in the full applicable terms.

7.3 Refunds, credits, or remedies are issued only as provided in the full applicable terms.
